

England in 19th century

Complete the crossword below

1. Joseph Carey Merrick joined the travelling „freak show“ on 3rd August, 1884 and he became well known as „_____“
2. Jack Black worked for the Queen Victoria during the middle of the nineteenth century. What was his job?
3. How long was The Queen Victoria the Queen of England?
4. There was a very popular therapy in England in 19th century. The animal collector used his or her own legs to gather one kind of animal. What animal was it?
5. There were two wars between England and China in the 19th century. Everything was about one product. What did England import from China?
6. Nobody knows who he was. But people called him "the Whitechapel Murderer" as well as "Leather Apron". What is the best known name given to an unidentified serial killer?
7. It was different colours - green, yellow, black. People called it „pea-soupers“. IT killed 12 000 people in a few days. What was it?
8. In July and August 1858 it was very hot. People put all the human waste and industrial effluent on the banks of the River Thames. Then something horrible happend. People called it „_____“